

CREATING A DISCUSSION FORUM

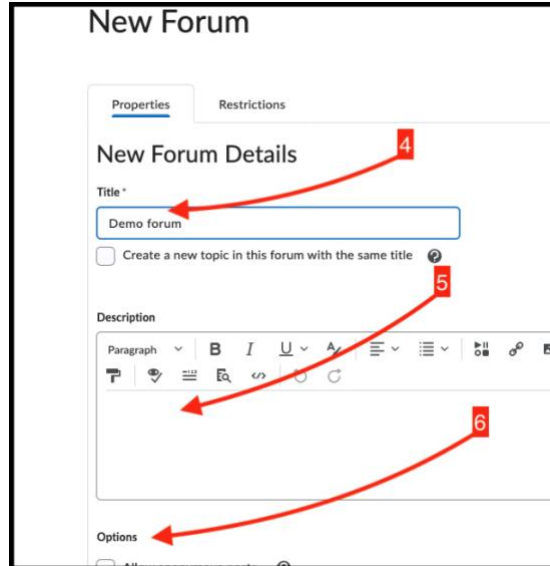

To create a discussion forum, follow this order. Note that your navbar may or may not include a direct link to discussions. If not, discussions can be found under Course Tools, Course Admin, or Course Tools

Working from your navbar:

1. Click on Discussions to access your discussions list
2. Click New and Chose New forum

3. In the resulting view you will see two tabs. You have landed in the Properties tab
4. Enter title in the box
 - a. Optional: if you are familiar with the system, you can check the box underneath to create a topic with the same title (see documentation on creating a topic)
5. Add your description in the text box
6. Under options, you have the following choices:
 - a. Allow anonymous posts
 - b. Require users to start a thread before seeing or replying to others
 - c. Require moderator approval before post becomes visible to others
 - d. Display the forum description you created in step 5 to the topic(s) you will later create and house within this module

7. Click on Restrictions tab

8. Check the box if you wish to Hide this Forum from users

9. Set Start Date and options

- a. Check the Has Start Date box
- b. Click the calendar to add a date
- c. Click the clock and scroll through to set a time
- d. Set Visibility options:
 - i. Visibility option 1: choose visible with access restricted before start if you want to student to see the forum exists, but not be able to enter it or do anything with it
 - ii. Visibility option 2: choose visible with submission restricted If you want students to be able to read descriptions or instructions before start, but not be able to submit
 - iii. Visibility option 3: click hidden before start to keep the forum invisible to students before the start date

10. Set End Dates and options

- a. Check the Has End Date box
- b. Click the calendar to add a date
- c. Click the clock and scroll through to set a time
- d. Set visibility options:
 - i. Visibility option 1: choose visible with access restricted before after end if you want to student to see the forum exists, but not be able to enter it or do anything with it

- ii. Visibility option 2: choose visible with submission restricted after end If you want students to be able to read forum after end, but not be able to submit
 - iii. Visibility option 3: click hidden before start to keep the forum invisible to students after the end date
11. Click Display in Calendar if you want this forum added to course calendar
- a. NOTE: To add to the calendar from here you need to have added either a start date or an end date

The screenshot shows the 'Restrictions' tab of a forum configuration page. It includes the following elements:

- Hide from Users: An unchecked checkbox.
- Availability: A section containing:
 - Has Start Date: An unchecked checkbox. Below it are two input fields: a date field with '8/23/2022' and a time field with '12:45 PM'.
 - Visibility before start: Three radio button options:
 - Visible with access restricted before start (unselected)
 - Visible with submission restricted before start (selected)
 - Hidden before start (unselected)
 - Has End Date: An unchecked checkbox. Below it are two input fields: a date field with '8/30/2022' and a time field with '4:45 PM'.
 - Visibility after end: Three radio button options:
 - Visible with access restricted after end (unselected)
 - Visible with submission restricted after end (selected)
 - Hidden after end (unselected)
- Display In Calendar: An unchecked checkbox at the bottom of the page.

Red arrows and numbers indicate the following steps:
9: Points to the 'Hide from Users' checkbox.
10: Points to the 'Visible with submission restricted before start' radio button.
11: Points to the 'Display In Calendar' checkbox.
